MacKenzie Commercial Real Estate Services Expands Downtown

MacKenzie Commercial Real Estate Services is proud to announce the addition of three new brokers to their downtown team, Antony (Tony) Gross, Teresa (Terri) Harrington, and Stephen (Steve) Johnston. Together they bring 30 years of experience in Commercial Real Estate and an impressive listing portfolio including M & T Bank Tower, One North Charles Street, 502 S. Sharp Street (Federal Reserve Bank Building), Charles Plaza, Candler Building, Bank of America Tower 2, and The American Building.

Tony Gross, formerly a Vice President at Coldwell Banker Commercial NRT's Baltimore office, brings more than 10 years of real estate and investment sales experience to the team. Gross worked previously as the Director of Business Services for the Downtown Partnership of Baltimore Inc., where he was responsible for maintaining relationships with the Top 100 employers in Downtown Baltimore. Gross was named the Number One Commercial Agent for Coldwell Banker Commercial NRT in 2005 and 2006, and has a Bachelor of Science degree in Finance from the University of Maryland, University College. He is a board member of the Maryland Chamber of Commerce, St. Agnes Hospital Foundation, and Teach for America. Gross, a Vice President at MacKenzie will focus on tenant representation, investment sales, and office leasing. He can be reached at 443.573.3208 or by email at agross@mackenziecommercial.com.

Terri Harrington, formerly a Vice President at Coldwell Banker Commercial NRT's Baltimore office, has 15 years of commercial real estate experience. Harrington, who started her real estate career with The Rouse Company, is a graduate of Millikin University in Decatur, IL and has a MBA in Finance from Loyola College in Baltimore. In addition, she serves as a board member on the Historic Charles Street Association, the Fort McHenry Business Association, and the Engineer's Club. Harrington joins MacKenzie as a Vice President, and will focus on tenant representation and office leasing and sales. She can be reached at 443.573.3213 or by email at tharrington@mackenziecommercial.com.

Steve Johnston, a Senior Real Estate Advisor at MacKenzie, has a degree in Economics from Michigan State University and a MBA from the University of Baltimore. Johnston, formerly a Senior Sales Associate at Coldwell Banker Commercial NRT's Baltimore office, was the president and founder of Brushwood Graphics Inc., a graphic design firm in its 30th year of business. As an entrepreneur, employer, tenant, landlord, and developer, he brings a multi-dimensional perspective to commercial real estate projects. Johnston will focus on office and industrial building sales and landlord and tenant representation. He can be reached at 443.573.3209 or by email at sjohnston@mackenziecommercial.com.

"Tony Gross, Terri Harrington, and Steve Johnston are excellent additions to our dynamic downtown team. Each bring with them unique skill sets that allow us to enhance our service offering to Baltimore's commercial real estate community," said Gary Gill, President and CEO of MacKenzie Commercial Real Estate Services, LLC.
